DECEMBER 2015 / JANUARY 2016

Dear Members and Friends,

As I write the Sunday evening before Thanksgiving, among other things on my rather disheveled desktop are three special items: (1) The delightful Koldyk twins, Samantha and Janet, gave me a package of my all-time favorite German gingerbread cookies ("lebkuchen," which they received from an aunt living in Germany) both in appreciation of the fun children's sermons and to wish me a Happy Thanksgiving (they also informed me they used their "awards" from last week to buy more kitty food for the homeless kitties!), (2) a $10,000 (!) check to the church quietly given me this morning by a faithful member "... in gratitude to God, Jesus and the Holy Spirit," and (3) this note I received from Evelyn Murray, which I read to the congregation last Sunday:

I would like to express my love for, and deepest gratitude to, all those who offered up their prayers, energy, strength, time, worldly goods and funds to help Julia Porcaro and her three girls move on yesterday to a new phase in their lives, one we all hope will be filled with peace, surrounded by our love and support, with a renewed dedication to serving our Lord and helping all those whose lives we have the power to enrich!

As many of you know, the Porcaro family faced the unexpected and tragic passing of loving husband, devoted father and industrious sole provider Charles this past July, leaving a huge void in their lives as well as creating many practical needs. Many of you helped the bereaved family move to a new apartment November 14; quality donations of needed furniture, truck rental, manpower (and womanpower!), and other generous contributions (both financial and practical) came together in an almost miraculous manner coordinated largely by Evelyn and other Presbyterian Women. On a related note, the Porcaros' needs continue; this past Thursday, the Deacons established the Porcaro Relief Fund. Donations are welcome (and some already received!); if you care to contribute, write your check to Greenwood Community Church, earmark it "Porcaro Relief Fund," and place it in the offering, mail it to the office, or give it to Evelyn Murray. THANK YOU!

Thanksgiving is now just four days away, the Deacons are preparing to deliver fifty holiday food baskets as well as home-cooked hot turkey meals to needy folks in our community, and we are once again gearing up for our annual celebration of our Lord's birth! As you'll read on the attached flyer (BOTH sides) and in the pages within, a number of activities and services are planned and eagerly anticipated; to highlight a few: November 29 Hanging of the Greens at 9:30 AM (ONE service that day) and Advent Wreath Family Workshop and Pot Luck at 5:00 PM; December 4 Parents Night Out 6:00 PM, with the children watching The Polar Express (SIXTEEN showed up for our last PNO!); Mission Committee's Christmas Giving Tree program (presents due December 6th !); December 6 All-Church Christmas Caroling 4:00 PM (and thank you to Ocean State Transit in Barrington for donating bus transportation COMPLETELY FREE!); December 8 Presbyterian Women's Christmas Gathering 6:00 PM (preceded by "Mini-Bazaar" at 5:00 PM), Sunday School Christmas Pageant 4:00 PM December 12 (followed by a delicious pasta supper!); December 21 Sunday School Christmas Tableau 9:00 AM, and four days later our Christmas Eve Services of Worship 6:00 and 10:00 PM!

Blessings to all for a happy, holy, joyous Christmas and a healthy & prosperous New Year!! -- Stephen L. Clark, Pastor

NEWS FROM THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

Advent is a wonderful time for preparing our hearts and minds for the celebration of Jesus' birth. Children of all ages will be learning about the Christmas story in our Sunday School. The Sunday School has its very own Advent wreath and we will be lighting the candles and singing favorite Christmas carols. Also, each class will be learning the story of Jesus' birth. We are excited and looking forward to the Annual Christmas Pageant which will be directed by our teacher, Mr. Rob Petrucci. Be sure to mark your calendars for this annual event (Sat., Dec. 12th at 4:00 p.m.). It is always such an awesome sight to see our youth presenting a meaningful Christmas message and our little ones dressed up as angels; just precious! Fellowship Hall will be festively decorated for our time together as we share a pasta dinner.

MITTEN TREE: In December and January grades 1, 2 and 3 and their teachers, Angie D'Albora and Jay David, will coordinate the collecting of mittens, hats, gloves and scarves for the needy on our Mitten Tree in Fellowship Hall. All are welcome to donate to this mission.

Proverbs 22:6 – *Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it.

Kings Kids - Kings Kids would like to thank everyone for being so generous with their donations for "Operation Christmas Child". We were able to fill all the boxes (110 as of this writing; that's 110 families that will be touched just from Greenwood Community Church in little Warwick, Rhode Island!). WE are God's hands and feet! God bless you and these families!. Please see above for all the details of upcoming events for December. We have so much planned and we want you all to be a part of it.

All Children in grades 2 through 6 are invited to join us and bring a friend. We will be singing in worship in December, at the Christmas Concert and on Christmas Eve at the 6:00 service. We have lots going on this month; make sure to read the Sunday School handouts so you don't miss out on the fun!

All Junior and Senior Highs are welcome to join us! We meet every Sunday from 5:30 – 8:00 p.m. in the Youth Room! Friends are always welcome!

MEMBER CARE COMMITTEE

On Sunday, November 15, we welcomed eleven new members into our Greenwood Church family. As is his custom, at the Session meeting to vote on receiving our new members, Pastor Clark asked all present to tell something about how they came to Greenwood Church. In the current class, some were first attracted to Greenwood by Vacation Bible School or an invitation from a friend, but all agreed that a big part of their decisions to become members was the warm welcome they received. You never know when you reach out and greet the person next to you on Sunday morning what an impact that simple act can have. One of our "new" members told her story, a story that with her permission I want to share with you all.

It was 1977. An independent young woman who had grown up attending a Methodist church with her family decided to visit other churches in the area to see what they were like. At all but one of these churches, she was able to attend the service and slip out unnoticed, but not at Greenwood Church. A friendly woman sitting nearby (perhaps Betty Mason?) greeted her warmly after the service and, surprised to see a teenaged girl in church alone, asked if everything was all right. The young girl enthusiastically responded that yes, thank you, everything is just fine, and that she had liked the service and planned to come again. When she told her parents about the warm, friendly church she had discovered, her mother told her that Greenwood was the church their friends Fran and Jim Bonn belonged to; and a plan was made for the whole family to visit. They must have liked it because on November 11, 1977, Charles, Florence, Janice, Virginia, and Linda Hachadorian became members of Greenwood Community Church.

But that's not the end of the story. As many of you know, Janice's mother Florence has served the church in all sorts of ways, as a Deacon, PW member, leader of the collations committee, and more. Her father, Charles, was the junior high Sunday School teacher for many years and a valuable member of the Session. Sister Ginny (Jacobs now) has also served as a Deacon, sings in the choir, and is our energetic Director of Family Ministries. In that role she is directly responsible for bringing many new members into our Greenwood family, including several other members of this year's class. Then we get to the next generation. Ginny's children Jessy, Jaime, and Jillian are contributing in their own ways in music and Christian Education. Jaime, like his Mom and Grandmother, is also serving as a Deacon, along with his wife, Marilyn. In January 1997 Janice and her husband Jeff Black brought their son John to Greenwood to be baptized – and now he is our Director of Music, Choir Director, and Organist. (I remember when, as a wee lad of about five or six, John insisted that he be allowed to accompany us on the piano when we sang in Children's Church.) His sister Christian is also sharing her considerable musical talents to enrich our worship services. Think of it – all of these contributions stemming from one member who reached out and made a visitor feel sincerely welcome!

I don't think this is all just chance. I believe that from the very beginning the Holy Spirit has been guiding the people of Greenwood Church and giving them the grace to love and care for one another. Another example of this is the outpouring of support from the church as our members pooled their talents to help Julia Porcaro and her daughters find a new place to live, donated or located needed items of furniture, orchestrated the move so it went smoothly, and supplied man (and woman) power to carry boxes, bags, and furniture. It was amazing to see it all come together, thanks to the many, many hours invested by people who follow Jesus' call to love and help our neighbors.

We need you all to be part of this ongoing effort. Welcome our visitors, and/or let someone on the Committee know if you notice someone hasn't been in church in a while. Give us a call if you or someone else needs help in ways big or small.

Thank you all, from the Member Care Committee: Elaine Magyar, Harry Curran, Walter Sullivan, Betty Stacey, Sheila Curran, Carol Sullivan, David Dickerman, Nancy Dickerman, Joan Eichenfeldt, Linda Martin, Joan-Sandra McKnight, Jeff Plouffe, Bonnie Readett, Doris Safford, Cathy Schobel, and Cheryl Bullock

MUSIC PROGRAM

Heaven and Nature Sing

Dear friends,

Here we are in the midst of Advent, enjoying this contemplative period of hopeful prayer as we await the celebration of Christ's birth. This is a favorite time of the liturgical year for many reasons, not the least of which is the retelling of a story so familiar to us and central to our history, coupled of course with the singing of familiar hymns. We remember and cherish these things, not only for their tremendous theological significance, but also for the deep sentiment we attach to them - the Gospel we vividly remember hearing as children; the carols we can joyously sing without reading the music; the celebration so profound it changed our existence, giving us hope, light, and peace. And it is a celebration that bears repeating; no amount of time can change that. The special joy of hushed excitement brought forth by Christmas Eve worship is like nothing else, and creates tremendous potential for truly moving worship (to say nothing of the wonderful family memory this service creates!).

So, through the remainder of Advent, Christmastide and Epiphany, let us be re-enchanted by these things. Hang on every word of the Gospel as it is read and proclaimed in worship, and make time for further study of these monumental texts. Boldly respond to our Calls to Worship and congregational prayers as we are captivated by the inspiration worship brings during this season. And, of course, sing a hymn of praise from your heart to the Lord; take these carols we hold so dear and use them as messengers of your adoration and thanksgiving to God. Maximize the corporate worship experience for all it can be during this special season!

Our congregation is also abundantly blessed with opportunities for fellowship and activity, especially at this time of year. Don't miss our Christmas concert here at Greenwood on Sunday, December 13 at 5:00 p.m. The program, entitled "Carols and Classics", will consist of choral works presented by the Greenwood Concert Choir, comprised of all Chancel Choir members and other fine volunteer musicians from the community. They will present a varied repertoire of beautiful carol arrangements, classical works and traditional Christmas anthems. Additionally, our Youth and Handbell choirs will present favorite Christmas anthems, and several of our talented instrumentalists and vocalists will perform. This is sure to be a wonderful offering of the talent present in our Music Program, and the start of a lovely new tradition at Greenwood. Bring your friends and neighbors to experience the music of Christmas at Greenwood Church!

Pray for God to touch all of our hearts this Advent and Christmastide, that we may be moved more than ever by the splendor of His abounding love for us.

MERRY CHRISTMAS!

Blessings,

John

John C. Black, Director of Music and Choirs, Organist

MISSION COMMITTEE

This Christmas Season the Mission Committee has once again partnered with Westbay Community Action and The Kent Center to provide Christmas gifts to children receiving services from these agencies. Be sure to stop by the Giving Tree in Fellowship Hall. Each gift should be purchased new and cost no more than $30. Cash donations will also be gratefully accepted; money donated will be used to purchase gifts for children and/or grocery and gas cards for their parents. Please return gifts by December 7 wrapped or unwrapped. Thank you for supporting this ministry. The workers from Warwick CAP and the Kent Center appreciate Greenwood very much and express their gratitude and blessings upon you all.

PEACE CORPS UPDATE FROM NICARAGUA: Amanda David has completed the intensive language and cultural training needed to serve with the Peace Corps in Nicaragua for the next two years. She was sworn in on Saturday, November 14 and moved into her new village on Sunday, November 15. Amanda will serve in a small village in the District of Boaco. The District of Boaco is located in the mountains east of the capitol of Managua. She will be teaching English alongside native teachers at the secondary or university level. She has been assigned to work with six native teachers and once a week will travel to a remote area of the country to work with teen-age natives. She will be challenged with finding food that agrees with her, and confronting her "love" of spiders and bugs. The worker who is just finishing up in her village warned her about tarantulas and scorpions in her house – and said not to leave any clothing on the floor.

Please see committee members Harry Curran, Deb Stacey or Emmy Kmet for more information on how to effectively lift your missionaries up in prayer and send them short notes or emails of encouragement.

NEWS FROM PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN

The Christmas season will be here soon. The first Sunday in Advent is November 29th and then we will be in the midst of Christmas preparations. While we are busy preparing for Christmas, let us take time for worship and remember that "Jesus is the reason for the season".

All of our church women are welcome to attend our PW Christmas Gathering on December 8th. There will be "Mini Bazaar shopping at 5:00 p.m. and then Dinner at 6:00 p.m. followed by a musical program up in the sanctuary. The musical program for the evening will be "The Voices of Christmas," a group of a cappella singers who gather each year to sing Christmas Carols and are dressed in Victorian-inspired finery.

The tickets for the dinner are $10 and will be on sale at coffee hours on November 15, 22, and 29. The deadline for ticket sales is on December 1st. The dinner will be prepared by Stu Mason and his "kitchen crew" and served by the men of the church. The dinner entrée will be a choice of Baked Stuffed Chicken Breast or Pot Roast.

We will be collecting paper products and non-perishable food items to be given to our local agencies. Also, please remember to bring an unwrapped gift for a child (infant - teenager) to be taken to the South Providence Neighborhood Ministries for distribution.

Thank you to the PW Program Committee and the ladies of Circles IV and V for planning and preparing for this lovely evening. Also, we give many thanks to the men of the church for preparing and serving our delicious dinner. Our Circles will be having their own Christmas parties and also have special giving projects as they help local needy people at Christmas time.

The Picasso Quilters have been very busy and won't be meeting until January. These ladies have made 590 sleeping bags since the group started here at Greenwood Church 6 years ago. They just gave sixty sleeping bags to Bruce and Laura Martin to be used for a homeless program they work with at their church in New Bedford. These bags will be a great help to homeless people in the cold winter months ahead. We appreciate the time and effort that these ladies use to work on this worthwhile project!

"Come as a guest, Leave as a friend."

I wish you all the Blessings of Christmas and a Happy and Healthy New Year!

Betty Mason for Presbyterian Women
